MUSIC EXPLORERS

The Platteville Children's Choir has a non-performing group (up to 20 members) for very young singers, (Kindergarten through 2nd grade), called Music Explorers.

The goal of Music Explorers is to provide younger children with a foundation of music skills that will prepare them for participation in PCC's three performing choirs.

There is NO audition requirement to enroll in Music Explorers. Enrollment is offered on a first-come/first-served basis.

The attached registration form may also be used for those interested in enrolling in Music Explorers, or email pcchoir1@gmail.com

The directors of the Platteville Children's Choirs are experts in the field of music education.

PCC members are strongly encouraged to participate in their school choir and/or music programs.

Our aim is to supplement, NOT replace, the valuable education experiences received in our wonderful school music programs.

More than 1,000 young singers in the Tri-State area have been part of the PCC program!

The Platteville Children's Choir has received grants from the following:

Community Fund of Southwest Wisconsin
The Dubuque Racing Association
The Platteville Optimist Club
